INTRODUCTION

Hi there and thanks for your interest in the Professional Ph.D. Coaching Program.

You might be asking yourself...

What is a Professional Doctorate (Ph.D.) and why should I consider doing it?

A Professional Doctorate is a doctoral degree based on professional experience.

It has the same recognition and is equivalent to any other Ph.D.

The focus is on your professional expertise, not academia.

The Ph.D. is based on research in your own area of expertise.

The Professional Ph.D. work can be completed in as little as 1 year.

Once you have completed your professional Ph.D. you will be entitled to use the title of doctor.

Let's find out if you are eligible.

THE PH.D. COACHING COMPONENTS

In order to be considered for a Ph.D., you need to present a compelling topic and your academic portfolio.

It must include your professional evidence of expertise.

This must be in a format that you can defend academically.

EVIDENCE COUNTS

The Ph.D. Coaching Program has always ensured every candidate has been accepted at a credible university to do a Ph.D.

“The experience was very professional. I was registered into a Ph.D. immediately.”

“Dr. Kennedy committed and got me into my ideal doctorate in neuroscience that is 100% relevant to my work as executive coach.”

“My published book was turned into a Ph.D. Thank you, Dr. Kennedy.”

THE INVESTMENT

The average cost of a Ph.D in the US is over 100K $.

Once you have completed the PhD. Coaching Program you will have the opportunity to enroll in a Professional Ph.D.

Program at an associated university in Europe and the UK.

The program costs there are at one third or less of the price of a Ph.D. Program from a US American university.

The investment for the Ph.D. Coaching Program is unrelated to the Ph.D. study fees.
